This, the superior, of all the dress codes is usually saved for official occasions and ceremonial events. Men are required to wear a black or white bow-tie, vest, and a black suit (tails recommended) while woman wear long gowns.

Dress Code Guide - How to Dress Correctly for the Occasion

The dress code is "smart-casual" i.e. casual but work appropriate. When it is about work, you should always keep it professional. Style gurus suggest that women can wear dress pants, a casual dress or a skirt with a nice blouse to a company party. Men are advised to stick to khakis or dress pants with a collared shirt and loafers.

The Guide To Dress Codes: What To Wear On Every Occasion

While etiquette rules are softening on the question of dress length, your best bet is a tea- or floor-length gown. A column or A-line dress is most sophisticated, but you could definitely wear a well-tailored, chic, and formal suit. Now's the time to elevate your look with elegant jewelry, fabulous shoes, and a great hairstyle.
