Uninvited Amanda Marrone

Uninvited is 100% completely and utterly a 'young adult' book. Don't be mislead into thinking that because you're an adult who enjoyed Twilight you will enjoy this! I count myself very lucky that my introduction to Amanda Marrone's work was through Devoured, which I thought to be an original story with some quite thrilling moments.

Vampire novels have timeless appeal for teens, and without being heavy-handed or didactic, Marrone raises the bar by creating a protagonist who has an effective self-realization of moral issues. Uninvited is a fast-paced vampire novel with soul.

As far as I can tell, Uninvited is the only book. Marrone has written a couple of others, one about witches I believe, but they aren't part of a series--each is an individual book with its own set of characters. Of course, I didn't go out of my way to see if there were any follow-ups to this book either, so double check on Amazon or B&N.

Review: Uninvited by Amanda Marrone - Today, I Read

UNINVITED is a tense, scary book that manages to throw in a little humor on the side. Marrone does a superb job of building the suspense about Michael's true intentions and how Jordan will deal with them.
